

Public Telephone Communications based out of Miami FL advertised that they were selling payphones that you could make $300/month for each phone. POC was Richard Dalco. After the purchase of the phones, the company's contact info is no longer correct. I also filed a complaint with the better business bureau. Apparently this company has changed its name 3x in the last three years. I would like them investigated for fraud, false advertising etc...